

Matter of Dorsey
Del. Supr. No. 281, 1993 (8/9/93)

Disciplinary Rules/Issues: Interim suspension

Nature of Case:

Upon receiving reports that the respondent had possibly misappropriated substantial client funds which he held in a fiduciary capacity, the Office of Disciplinary Counsel filed a Petition for Interim Suspension directly with the Delaware Supreme Court, pursuant to Board on Professional Responsibility Rules 16 and 17.

Action Taken by the Court:

After hearing testimony regarding the respondent's misappropriation of client funds amounting to approximately $391,000, the Court entered an order suspending him from the practice of law on an interim basis, and pending further order of the Court.
